5 STATEMENT OF FACTS

6 This complaint is based upon the personal observations, investigation and 7 information provided to U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement Special Agent
8 Douglas Struckmeyer.

9 On December 17, 2007, Alicia Marie CODERA and Cindy PALOMINO entered
10 the United States at the Calexico, California East Port of Entry. CODERA was the 11 driver and PALOMINO was the passenger of a 1995 Mitsubishi Montero. Customs and 12 Border Protection Officer (CBPO) A. Barnes took a negative Customs declaration from 13 CODERA and PALOMINO. CBPO Barnes observed that both subjects' hands were 14 trembling during the primary inspection. CBPO Barnes referred CODERA and 15 PALOMINO to secondary for further inspection.

16 CBPO R. Ramos encountered the vehicle in the secondary inspection area and 17 also received a negative declaration from CODERA and PALOMINO. CBPO Ramos
18 conducted a secondary search of the vehicle and observed that the spare tire felt
19 unusually hard. CBPO requested that Canine Enforcement Officer (CEO) M. McGee
20 screen the vehicle with his Narcotic Detector Dog (NDD). The NDD alerted to the 21 presence of an odor of a controlled substance coming from the spare tire.

22 A further search of the spare tire resulted in the discovery of 5 packages. The 23 packages contained a green leafy substance which field-tested positive for marijuana.
24 The total weight of the packages was 12.38 Kilograms.

1 Special Agent's (S/A) Douglas Struckmeyer Hugo Leon interviewed CODERA
2 and PALOMINO. S/A Struckmeyer furnished each individual with their constitutional
3 rights per Miranda in English with S/A Leon present. Each individual orally waived their 4 rights, as well as signing the written waiver of rights, agreeing to make a statement.

5 CODERA stated she knew the vehicle contained marijuana. CORDERA stated
6 that PALOMINO had made the arrangements to smuggle the marijuana into the United
7 States. CORDERA stated that PALOMINO told her the vehicle contained between 10
8 and 20 kilograms of marijuana concealed within the spare tire. CORDERA stated that 9 they were going to be paid $1,000.00 for smuggling the marijuana into the United 10 States and that they were going to split the money evenly between them.

11 PALOMINO gave two separate accounts, both of which were inconsistent with 12 statements given by CORDERA. PALOMINO stated they were going to be paid
13 $1,000.00 for driving the vehicle across the border into the United States, but 14 PALOMINO claimed that she had no knowledge of the contents in the vehicle.
15 PALOMINO stated she was originally suspicious, but she inspected the vehicle and 16 determined that it appeared not to contain any contraband.

17 CORDERA and PALOMINO were arrested by ICE Agents for violations of 21
18 U.S.C. 952 and 960, Importation of Marijuana. They were both booked into the Imperial 19 County Jail, in El Centro, California, pending an appearance in U.S. Magistrate Court.
